

Crystal River Studio Project

Design requirements needed to take into consideration large windows, French doors, existing crown molding, limited stack and minimal projection into the living areas.

We developed a motorized concept that would have three layers concealed by a padded cornice in the same space that the original treatments required.

View the complete project story with photos \(1.8 MB\).